

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 28. 1718.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Caminieck, November 3.

WE have Advice that the Han of the Tartars lies upon the Frontiers of Turkey with 100000 of his Men, to keep a watchful Eye upon the Motions of the Russians, and to fall upon them in case they move that Way, or attempt to send more Forces into Poland. And we understand that he has let the Republick know, he shall be ready to assist them with any Number of Troops they shall want. From the Amst. and Leid. Gazettes, dated Nov. 29.

Grodno, Nov. 10. The Provincial Diets finish'd their Assemblies the 5th, having resolv'd to maintain the Treaty of Warsaw, altho' the Deputies of Olsawski oppos'd it; but they could not agree upon the Limitation of the Diet. The Starost Biagnowski, who was order'd to be seiz'd for having counterfeited the King's Hand, fled into the Convent of the Carmelites, but the Pope's Nuncio has been prevail'd upon to allow him to be taken thence. On the 3d Instant the King assembled the Senate and the Deputies of the Palatinates of Poland and Lithuania, to deliberate with them upon the most convenient Methods to be made use of for obliging the Muscovite Troops to retire out of the Land.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Warsaw, Nov. 14. By Letters newly receiv'd from Grodno, we hear, that after many Difficulties that had been agitated in the Diet were remov'd, and there was great Hopes of a happy Conclusion, there happen'd a great Disorder in the Session of the 12th Instant, occasion'd by the Sieur Kuiput, Nuncio of Orzawiec, who seeing himself refus'd his active Voice, rose up briskly and went out, protesting against the Diet's Proceeding. He was follow'd soon after to his Lodging, to restore him his Vote, but he was not found; and he having before sent away his Equipage, it is presumed that he intended to raise a Faction for breaking up the Diet, which must remain incapable of proceeding, if that Deputy doth not return into the Assembly in 24 Hours Time.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Grodno, Nov. 16. M. Kuiput, Deputy of Ocław, (who protested against the Diet's Proceeding and went out) being not return'd, the King resolv'd to prorogue the Diet, (which was agreed to by the Senate and the Provincial Deputies) to the Month of May next, but the Day was not set, nor the Place of their assembling named, which is left to the King: But with Condition that the Treaty of Warsaw, and the Equality of Taxation of the Laity and Clergy be maintain'd. It was also before agreed, that the Waywode of Masuria shall go Ambassador to the Czar, to demand his Cathedrical Answer concerning the Retreat of his Troops out of the Kingdom. The Primate of the Kingdom labou'r'd hard to get the Clergy excus'd from the above mentioned Equality of Taxation, but in vain; for the Provincial Deputies spoke so vehemently against it, that that Prelate having read his Reservation and Protestation with respect to the Ecclesiastical Immunities, went out of the Assembly in great Displeasure. The King will suddenly return to Warsaw, and some flatter themselves he will tarry there till the Time of the reassembling of the Diet, but that is by others very much doubted.

Copenhagen, Nov. 26. We have received no Post from Norway this Week, to inform us of the Issue of the Swedish Enterprize upon that Kingdom; we are the more impatient for it, because we judge that that Irruption could not be made without a previous Action. The Count d'Alfeld, and the Counsellour of State Veis, went two Days ago to the Castle, to interrogate the Counsellour Muller, with Threats that if he does not freely confess all that he has acted to the Disadvantage of the State, he should be put to the Rack. We know in general that he acknowledges he had held Correspondence with almost all the Courts of Europe, but hereafter we shall be able to tell the Particulars of his Confession. The King has given the Conduct of the four Battalions design'd for Norway, to M. Tordenschiold, and 'tis said he will also have the Command by Sea, and that M. Rosenpaulm will return hither. A Fire happen'd last Wednesday in an English Ship belonging to the Commissary of that Nation, but by speedy Assistance it was happily extinguis'h'd, without doing more Damage than what may be repaired for 250 Crowns.

Hamburg, Nov. 29. Here are Letters by good Hands from Grodno, which advise, that the Diet is terminated with the good Lik'ing and Satisfaction of the Court. It had been before agreed, that it case the Diet should be broke up, all that had been concluded on should remain entire, and have the Force of a Law. The principal Result of this Diet consists in this, that they have given Power to the King to call together the Postpolite when his Majesty shall think fit; and that the Clergy of the Kingdom of Poland, and the Great Duchy of Lithuania, shall be oblig'd to furnish a Contingent towards the Expences of that Assembly.

Letters from Vienna remark, that altho' the Journey of the Emperour to Presburg requires a great Sum of Money to defray the Expences of it, his Imperial Majesty persists nevertheless in his Resolution of going thither in the Spring, to hold the Triennial Diet according to the Statutes of that Kingdom. Fresh Sollicitations are daily made to the Emperour for the Release of the Prince Sobieski, who is still detain'd at Brixen; but the Emperour does not alter his Resolution. 'Tis talk'd that the Electoral Prince of Saxony will follow the Example of the Prince of Bavaria, and return home in a short Time: And that neither the one nor the other will return thither, till they have a positive Declaration concerning the Marriage of the two Archduchesses of the late Emperour Joseph. We have also Advice from the Imperial Court, that the Spanish Ministers have made some Propositions to the King of Sweden and to the Czar, but the latter has intirely rejected them. They were dispatching immediately to Naples, the Servant of Count Thaun who arriv'd there lately, with Letters written by the Emperour's own Hand. The Evening that Express arriv'd, a Conference was held at the House of the Count de Stella the Emperour's Favourite, upon the Affairs of Naples and Sicily, and great Application is used to find out Means for remedying the Abuses that are crept into the Administration of the Finances of the Kingdom of Naples, which is become the more necessary, in that the President of the Finances employ'd other ways the Monies which the Viceroy had appointed for the Expedition to Sicily. 'Tis believ'd that President will be removed, and call'd to Court to answer for himself.
